

North Dayton, TN Proposed Transmission Project

Legend

- |                         |                  |                     |            |               |                                    |                             |                     |                                       |                          |
|-------------------------|------------------|---------------------|------------|---------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Alternative Routes      | County Boundary  | Perennial Stream    | Barn       | Radio Tower   | Residential                        | Educational                 | Major Highway (ROW) | Shrub/Scrub                           | FEMA 100 Year Flood Zone |
| Transmission Stations   | Existing ROW     | Intermittent Stream | Church     | School        | Cemetery                           | Electric Transmission (ROW) | Openland            | Strip-mines, Quarries and Borrow Pits | FEMA Floodway            |
| Transmission Structures | Parcels          | Airport             | Commercial | Chicken House | Commercial, Service, Institutional | Forest                      | Plantation          | Water                                 |                          |
| Transmission Lines      | Scaled Buildings |                     | Dwelling   | Communication | Communication                      | Junkyard                    | Religious           | Wetland                               |                          |