

Earn a free laptop and expand your digital skills

The Columbus Housing Authority (CHA) is excited to announce that internet and digital basics classes and laptops will be available for residents beginning this fall through the ACTNow program.

These classes will teach digital skills to those interested in being more comfortable navigating the internet. Residents who complete the classes will be able to earn a free laptop and wi-fi hotspot to take home.

Ready to sign up? Contact:

Jacklyn Weir
jweir@friendlycityresidentcouncil.org
662-251-7426

MADE POSSIBLE BY:

COLUMBUS HOUSING AUTHORITY

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO SIGN UP?

All CHA residents can sign up for classes. Parental permission is needed for students under the age of 18.

WHAT TOPICS WILL BE COVERED?

- Computer basics
- Internet navigation
- Online banking
- Online job applications
- Telehealth

HOW DO I EARN A FREE LAPTOP?

Attend at least 8 hours of classes. Limit one laptop per household.