

Harriman Utility Board / Rockwood Electric Utility, TN

Timeline: June 2023 – August 2024

Key Community Priorities

- Improve cleantech workforce training in partnership with Roane State Community College / Tennessee College Applied Technology.
- Educate residents about energy use.
- Enhance resiliency of local grid infrastructure.
- Ensure residents from a wide range of income categories have access to energy-efficient homes.

Deliverables

- Develop strategies to enhance and expand the local cleantech workforce.
- Educate LPC customers about energy conservation techniques and offer solutions to reduce energy burden.
- Explore and capitalize on opportunities to bolster grid resilience.
- Support for Community Change Grant pursuit.

Partner Organization

- Harriman Utility Board
- Rockwood Electric Utility

Other Engaged Stakeholders

- Roane Alliance
- Cities of Harriman and Rockwood
- Middle East Community Action Agency
- Roane State Community College
- Tennessee College of Applied Technology
- Roane Medical Center
- Local school district