

Harding Spring - Gladstone, AL Proposed Transmission Project

Legend

- |                                      |                         |                     |          |            |             |                |                                    |                |                                              |                     |            |             |                                       |                                |                      |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------|---------------------|----------|------------|-------------|----------------|------------------------------------|----------------|----------------------------------------------|---------------------|------------|-------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|----------------------|
| Initial 1.4 miles (partial new ROW)  | Transmission Stations   | Parcel Data         | Airport  | Church     | Radio Tower | Airport        | Center pivot irrigation system     | Disturbed Area | Floriculture, Orchards, Vineyards, Nurseries | Industrial          | Openland   | Race Course | Shrub/Scrub                           | Subdivision under construction | USGS Depressions     |
| Rebuild Section (Existing ROW)       | Transmission Structures | Scaled Buildings    | Dwelling | Commercial | School      | Athletic Field | Commercial, Service, Institutional | Educational    | Grass Runway                                 | Junkyard            | Park       | Religious   | Shooting Range                        | Substation                     | Econ. Dev. Ind. Site |
| Alternative Routes                   | Perennial Stream        | Intermittent Stream | Barn     | Industrial | Water Tank  | Cemetery       | Communication                      | Forest         | Helicopter Port                              | Major Highway (ROW) | Plantation | Residential | Strip-mines, Quarries and Borrow Pits | Water                          | Water Tank           |
| Site 1 / Site 2 Preliminary Property | County Boundary         | Existing ROW        |          |            |             |                |                                    |                |                                              |                     |            |             | Wetland                               |                                |                      |